

IDAHO STATUTORY FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY

Important Information

This power of attorney authorizes another person (your agent) to make decisions concerning your property for you (the principal). Your agent can make decisions and act with respect to your property (including your money) whether or not you are able to act for yourself. The meaning of authority over subjects listed on this form is explained in the uniform power of attorney act, chapter 12, title 15, Idaho Code.

This power of attorney does not authorize the agent to make health care decisions for you.

You should select someone you trust to serve as your agent. The agent's authority will continue until your death unless you revoke the power of attorney or the agent resigns.

Your agent is entitled to reasonable compensation unless you state otherwise in the Special Instructions.

The form provides for designation of one (1) agent. If you wish to name more than one (1) agent, you may name a coagent in the Special Instructions. Coagents are not required to act together unless you include that requirement in the Special Instructions.

If your agent is unable or unwilling to act for you, your power of attorney will end unless you have named a successor agent. You may also name a second successor agent.

This power of attorney becomes effective immediately unless you state otherwise in the Special Instructions.

If you have questions about the power of attorney or the authority you are granting to your agent, you should seek legal advice before signing this form.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR AGENT

1. Agent’s Duties. When you accept the authority granted under this power of attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the principal. The relationship imposes upon you legal duties that continue until you resign or the power of attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- a. Do what you know the principal reasonably expects you to do with the principal’s property or, if you do not know the principal’s expectations, act in the principal’s best interest;
- b. Act in good faith;
- c. Do nothing beyond the authority granted in this power of attorney; and
- d. Disclose your identity as an agent whenever you act for the principal by signing the name of the principal and signing your own name as “agent” in the following manner:

_____ by _____ as agent

Unless the Special Instructions in this power of attorney state otherwise, you must also:

- a. Act loyally for the principal’s benefit;
- b. Avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the principal’s best interest;
- c. Act with care, competence and diligence;
- d. Keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and transactions conducted for the principal;
- e. Cooperate with any person that has authority to make health care decisions for the principal to do what you know the principal reasonably expects or, if you do not know the principal’s expectations, to act in the principal’s best interest; and
- f. Attempt to preserve the principal’s estate plan if you know the plan and preserving the plan is consistent with the principal’s best interest.

2. Termination of Agent's Authority. You must stop acting on behalf of the principal if you learn of any event that terminates this power of attorney or your authority under this power of attorney. Events that terminate a power of attorney or your authority to act under a power of attorney include:

- a. Death of the principal;
- b. The principal's revocation of the power of attorney or your authority;
- c. The occurrence of a termination event stated in the power of attorney;
- d. The purpose of the power of attorney is fully accomplished; or
- e. A legal action is filed with a court to end your marriage to the principal, or for your legal separation, unless the Special Instructions in this power of attorney state that such an action will not terminate your authority.

3. Liability of Agent. The meaning of the authority granted to you is defined in the act. If you violate the act or act outside the authority granted, you may be liable for any damages caused by your violation.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT OR YOUR DUTIES THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU SHOULD SEEK LEGAL ADVICE.
